Everything changes in

A Blink of an Eye

If this year has taught us anything it is that things can change dramatically in a blink of an eye. On the morning of September 11 students awoke to find their lives and their world forever changed.

Centenary's Community came together during this tragic time to support one another and their country.

So while everything may have changed in a blink of an eye, we like all Americans have found a way carry on.

news

Students returning to Centenary this year found more than a few things different in the Student Union Building. The bookstore moved out of the basement and now shares second floor space with the more relaxing elements of the SUB (i.e. the pool and ping pong tables). In place of the bookstore there is the new Student Organization Center or the SOC as many students like to call it, and the new offices of the Student life Department. The mail center recieved a facelift and the CAB office move downstairs creating a media center on the third floor. These changes are just the begining of things to come.

Favorite Book: I'm an English major...how in the heck am I supposed to pick just one.

Favorite Movie: Gone with the Wind

If you could throw a dinner party and invite five people dead or alive who would be at your table? Rob Thomas, Bill Pullman, Harrison Ford, Sean Connery, and Josh Hartnett. It would be the best date I've ever had.

Favorite Centenary memory: Eating snowcones outside the caf on the swing.

Plans for the future: A masters in Student Affairs, oh yeah, and a family too, if my job permits!

Advice or thoughts: Never let anyone tell you that you can't accomplish something. Every great experience I've had has been one that someone told me I would never be able to accomplish. All you have to do is try.

What do you want people to remember about you? I am proof that it is possible to be insanely busy and maintain a healthy level of insanity.

"What a great blessing faithful friendship is- the friendship of a true woman on whom one can depend and in whom one can trust. I fear it is a rare thing. Yet I have found some such friends- not many but enough. I do not, since girlhood passed, make friends easily or lightly. But I no longer desire many friends or a superficial popularity. Rather do I wish a few, kin to me of soul, whom I can grapple to my life with bonds not to be broken, on whose honor I can rely, and in whose companionship I can find satisfaction. For such friends I say 'Thank God,' with all my heart.

But Somethings Never Change

While things may be changing all around us it is nice to know that some-things never change. Here at Centenary students know they can always find a friend or a professor willing to listen and lend a helping hand. As many students here already know the best thing about going to Centenary is the sense of family that you get when you walk on to campus. So while things can change in a blink of an eye somethings will always be around. Like your Centenary family.

Good-Bye & Thank You!

There were times when I thought this book would never get finished, but thanks to some wonderful people it did. First off I would like to thank my staff-Ashlie, Mindy, Breanna, Casey, Eric, Jennifer, Justin, Jennifer, Katie, Krystil, Kendra, Kim, Katherine, Michael, Megan and Susan. You all did a great job and I could not have done it without you. Special thanks to Kendra for the cover design and Breanna for the theme. I must also thank David Pratt and Donna Bartholomew for all the wonderful pictures they let us use. Many pages would have been blank without their help. To the post office staff, thank you for putting up with me all year. I cannot forget the greatest yearbook advisor ever, David Baker. Without you, David, there would be no book to speak of. Thanks for having faith in me. Thanks to my mom and dad for all their support and love. And last but not least my friends, Mindy, Ashlie, Krystil, Maynard, Christy, Megan, and Michelle. Thank your for supporting me during the most stressful year of my life. Extra special thanks to my summer crew, Krystil, Mindy, Megan and Michelle for helping me finish right down to the wire. Finally, Jennifer, you are going to make a great editor. I wish you all the luck in the world, even though you won't need it. Goodbye, Centenary, and thanks for the memories.
